TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYEE OPTIONS TO BE ISSUED UNDER DESERT ENERGY LIMITED EMPLOYEE OPTION PLAN

The Employee Options are issued in accordance with the Desert Energy Limited Employee Option Plan will entitle the optionholders to subscribe for Shares in the Company on the following terms:

(a) Employee Option Plan

All the Employee Options are issued pursuant to the Plan and in the event of any inconsistency between the terms set out below and the Plan, the Plan will prevail and have effect to the extent of the inconsistency. Each of the Relevant Persons is deemed to be, and accepted as, an “Eligible Person” for the purposes of the Plan and each such Relevant Person will continue to be deemed to be, and accepted as, an “Eligible Person” while he continues to provide his services to the Company on a full or part time basis, whether as a direct employee of the Company or by virtue of any arrangement whereby the Relevant Person’s services are provided to the Company by another company which employs the Relevant Person.

(b) Issue Price and Exercise price

Each Employee Option is issued for nil consideration.

Each Employee Option shall entitle the optionholder to acquire one fully paid ordinary share in the capital of the Company upon exercise and payment of an exercise price (“the Exercise Price”).

(c) Expiry date

Subject to the provisions herein which provide for Employee Options to lapse earlier in certain circumstances, the Employee Options will expire on the Expiry Date.

(d) Certificate

A certificate will be issued for the Employee Options and sent to the optionholder together with the terms and conditions of the Employee Options and a written notice that is to be completed when exercising Employee Options.

(e) Employee Options not listed

The Employee Options will not be listed for official quotation on the ASX.

(f) Employee Options not transferable

The Employee Options are not transferable except with the consent of the Board or as permitted in clause 14.5 of the Plan.

(g) Exercise

Except as otherwise permitted under clause 12 of the Plan, one half of the number of Employee Options issued to each optionholder are exercisable only on or after <First Exercise Date (a)> and the other half of the Employee Options issued to each option holder are exercisable only on or after <First Exercise Date (b)>.

Subject to (m) below, the Employee Options may be exercised by notice in writing to the Company (“the Exercise Notice”), delivery of the Employee Option certificates and payment of the Exercise Price to the Company at any time between the date of First Exercise Date for those Employee Options and the Expiry Date (“the Exercise Period”). The Employee Options may be exercised in one or more lots in multiples of 10,000 on different occasions during the Exercise Period for those Employee Options. Within 5 business days of receipt of the “Exercise Notice” and Employee Option certificates and payment of the “Exercise Price”, the Company will allot the corresponding number of fully paid ordinary shares to the optionholder, procure the issue a statement of holding for the shares and apply for the shares to be listed on the stock exchanges on which the Company is listed. The shares issued as a result of exercise of the Employee Options shall rank equally in all respects with the other issued fully paid shares in the Company.

(h) New share issue

If the Employee Options are exercised before the record date of an entitlement, the optionholder can participate in a pro rata issue to the holders of the underlying securities in the Company. The Company must notify the optionholder of the proposed issue at least 9 business days before the record date. Optionholders do not have a right to participate in new share issues without exercising their Employee Options in accordance with Listing Rule 6.19.

(i) Bonus Issue

If, from time to time, before the expiry of the Options the Company makes a pro rata issue of Shares to Shareholders for no consideration, the number of Shares over which the Options are exercisable will be increased by the number of Shares which the optionholder would have received if the Option had been exercised before the record date for calculating entitlements to the pro rata issue.

(j) Reorganisations

In the event of any reorganization of the issued capital of the Company, the Employee Options will be reorganized by the Company in accordance with the Listing Rules (including without limitation by the Company changing the number or exercise price for the Employee Options in such manner as may be required by the Listing Rules.)

(k) Change of Employee Option's exercise price or the number of underlying securities

(i) In the event that a pro rata issue (except a bonus issue) is made to the holders of the underlying securities in the Company, the exercise price of the Employee Options may be reduced according to the following formula:

$$O' = \frac{O - \frac{E[P - (S + D)]}{N + 1}}$$

O' = the new exercise price of the Employee Option;

O = the old exercise price of the Employee Option;

E = the number of underlying securities in the Company into which one option is exercisable;

P = the average market price per security (weighted by reference to volume) of the underlying securities in the Company during the five (5) trading days ending on the day before the ex rights date or ex entitlements date;

S = the Subscription price for a security under the pro rata issue;

D = the Dividend due but not yet paid on the existing underlying securities (except those to be issued under the pro rata issue);

N = the Number of securities with rights or entitlements that must be held to receive a right to one new security in the Company.

(ii) The number of shares to be issued pursuant to the exercise of Employee Options will be adjusted for bonus issues made prior to exercise of Employee Options. The effect will be that upon exercise of the Employee Options the number of shares received by the optionholder will include the number of bonus shares that would have been issued if the Employee Options had been exercised prior to the record date for bonus issues. The exercise price of the Employee Options shall not change as result of any such bonus issue.

(l) Dividends

The Employee Options carry no entitlement to participate in dividends until shares are allotted pursuant to the exercise of the Employee Options.

(m) Cessation of engagement of the Relevant Period.

In relation to each Relevant Person, the period from the date of issue of the Employee Options to such person or Nominee until the First Exercise Date is deemed a minimum period for the purposes of clause 14.3a) of the Plan such that if the Relevant Person ceases to be classified as an Eligible Person during such period all Employee Options issued to that Relevant Person or Nominee will lapse such that none of those Employee Options will be exercisable.

In the event that a Relevant Person ceases to be an Eligible Person after the First Exercise Date then some or all of the Employee Options issued to that Relevant Person or his Nominee may lapse or be subject to a shortened Exercise Period in accordance with the application of the provisions of Clause 14 of the Plan.
